If your totally new and you are not sure where to start, or don't have time to get anything, then I do have some great beginner kits that you can purchase, that would make a great first project.

I also have an essentials pack available with the best dressmaking scissors, and tools, all my favorite tools $110 this can really help you get started on the right path.

If I don't answer when you call its because I am in a lesson and will call you back as soon as I can.
